Financial Capability Program

PURPOSE:

CPAH provides free financial counseling and coaching to help clients stabilize finances, build credit, establish savings, manage and reduce debt, increase financial knowledge and skills, and develop a customized road map to achieve financial goals. CPAH counselors can provide ongoing coaching to track progress towards goals and help clients create updated individual action plans.

ENROLLMENT:

To enroll, please submit the following three items to CPAH's Director of Education & Counseling, Laura Olvera, at lolvera@cpahousing.org or at the address below:

- CPAH Programs Application (attached).
- Budget Template (attached). Please complete based on your current actual income and expenditures and NOT based on a "spending plan" that illustrates how you would like to earn/spend.
- Copy of your credit report dated within 60 days of your counseling appointment. Reports can be pulled at no cost to you from the Credit Karma website: www.creditkarma.com/signup. If you have difficulty obtaining your credit report prior to your appointment, please let us know and your counselor can assist you the day you come in. Please note: Reports pulled from Credit Karma will not adversely affect your scores.

Upon receipt of the completed information above, a CPAH counselor will call you within 3 business days to schedule a counseling appointment. To make your appointment as effective as possible, your assigned counselor will request that you provide additional documentation 24 hrs. prior to your appointment (for example, most recent bank statement).

Counseling sessions are available in English and Spanish. Upon request, CPAH can make accommodations for those with disabilities.

Counseling is provided at CPAH's fully accessible office located in the Executive Center at 800 S. Milwaukee Avenue, Suite 201, Libertyville. We are on the east side of the road, about 2 miles north of Route 60 and 1 mile south of route 176, across the street from Condell Hospital.
